

SE AETC Interprofessional Education Logic Model

Outcomes Activities Inputs Proximal Intermediate Outputs · Common IPE-HIV vision, SE AETC central · Recruit/select IPE project leaders Increased capacity for IPE-Increased capacity office leadership expectations, and curricula HIV programs in the region of the clinical HIV Support IPE workgroup and community of practice Workgroup workforce SLI, IPE, and · Satisfaction of stakeholders Resources and training available in Partner with established IPE programs to Enables stronger evaluation the region integrate/enhance HIV curriculum workgroups practice SE AETC IPE website with Develop site IPE program vision, goals, and transformation HRSA program resources implementation plans initiatives quidelines and Number of active IPE-HIV "change Develop faculty training materials and resources PE funding Improved case agents" leading IPE initiative Develop additional HIV-related content for trainee management of SE AETC Number of IPE-HIV partnering sites seminars relevant for multiple professions య PLWH infrastructure and • Number of programs started and/or Develop regional HIV-content webcasts relevant ETC resources enhanced with HIV content for multiple professions National IPE · Regular, ongoing community of Share IPE resources with sites resources and practice calls quidelines Provide evaluation support · Evaluation data across sites Programs Site infrastructure and Recruit/identify IPE mentors/coaches Site-specific IPE-HIV program vision. Increased trainee knowledge Improved expectations, and curricula of IP theory; roles, collaboration and resources • Train faculty to best support trainee learning (i.e., responsibilities, contributions communication · Site policies and · Resources and training available to team-based learning) of all team members; ethical skills in multiple procedures in the region Establish program mission, goals, objectives, and decision-making effective contexts and Clinical facilities Number of faculty trained in IPE-HIV requirements team development Education across curricula IPE faculty Recruit/select students in targeted disciplines as stakeholders (e.g., Strengthened knowledge of trainees • Number of students by discipline HIV clinicians who conflict HIV best practices and the enrolled in IPE-HIV program Conduct trainee orientation volunteer as management, healthcare needs of PLWH preceptors Number of students by discipline active listening, Establish shared understanding of trainee roles, · Increased use of reflective who complete IPE-HIV program providing Students in medicine, responsibilities, values, and scope Interprofessional practices to improve care feedback) Number of IPE-HIV seminars nursing, dentistry, Conduct HIV and other classroom-based seminars Increased respect and value public health, allied Improved team Number and total hours of clinical Conduct regional webinars of IP practice health, pharmacy. functioning immersion placements • Provide clinical immersion placements · Increased sense of shared and/or behavioral Increased Number of completed capstone values among team • Engage trainees in reflective practices health as potential collaborative projects members trainees Oversee IPE team capstone project practices in patient · Faculty, clinician, and trainee Site-based funding care · Conduct evaluation and quality improvement satisfaction with the program that can be leveraged activities Assumptions External Factors

Collaborative teams can provide better care to PLWH, and IPE helps professionals learn how to work in teams and understand the roles of different providers play in providing care

Funding for IPE programs, proximity of different professional programs, schedules of those programs, graduation requirements, clinics willing to provide clinical experience to students, patients willingness to work with students

Long-term

· Improved health

Decreased

status of PLWH

fragmentation of

Reduced patient

Increased patient

Increased patient

adherence with

Increased patient

retention in HIV

Increased access

Improved patient

healthcare

and utilization of support services by outcomes along the

HIV care continuum

recommendations

treatment

care

care

PLWH

satisfaction with healthcare costs

health care system

Reduced incidence

of HIV in the region