

GENERAL OBJECTIVES

1. Identify and learn the roles and responsibilities of other health professionals in the management of a patient
2. Understand the importance of interprofessional communication in the management of a patient
3. Understand the importance of functioning in a healthcare team in a collaborative manner
4. Learn how to function in an interprofessional team and carry this knowledge, skill, and value into their future practice.
5. Acquire the ability to provide interprofessional patient care as part of a collaborative team and focused on improving patient outcomes.
6. Identify strategies, technique and equipment needed to improve patient's health.